Dear Parents

GCSE English Literature Theatre Visit

I am writing to inform you of an opportunity for students in the current Year 9 to attend a performance of 'An Inspector Calls' - the set text your child will be studying for their GCSE English Literature exam from September 2018. We have managed to book seats for the whole of the year group at the Theatre Royal, York, on the afternoon of Tuesday 18th September 2018 for the performance at 2.00 p.m.

The coaches will leave Tadcaster Grammar School at 1.15pm. The performance will finish at approximately 4.00 p.m., when the students will return to the bus park at Tadcaster Grammar School for approximately 4.30 p.m. You will need to make arrangements to collect your child from the Grammar School on their return.

The cost of the visit will be £17.50 which includes the theatre ticket, transport by coach and insurance. If you would like to reserve a place for your child could you please go to Parent Pay, An Inspector Calls Theatre Visit, and pay the amount of £17.50 before Friday 25th May 2018.

Students who are entitled to Pupil Premium will have a place allocated on the visit. We will contact you with a separate letter of permission.

Yours sincerely
