Dear Parents and Students

Revision guides for GCSE Religious Studies Spec A

Following the introduction of the new GCSE course (first examined 2018) there are limited materials available. The best on the market this summer was the Hodder Education: My revision notes Religious Studies Spec A 9-1. This revision guide is very informative and covers everything needed within the specification.

In addition to this there has recently been a new publication by Oxford University Press. This has a greater emphasis on quotes and gives an array of possible examination questions in addition to covering all elements of the specification.

Below are the amazon links to both revision guides:

Oxford = £9.95

I have copies of all revision guides if students would like to see them before purchasing the one that is most suitable for them. As always, myself or any member of the Religious Studies will support students in making the appropriate choice.

Yours sincerely
